What is Camp Journey?

Camp Journey is an overnight camping experience designed to help children express and understand their grief.

For children, the loss of a loved one can be a difficult time. Camp Journey is designed as a time for expression and fun.

Through fun-filled activities and reflective moments, children and youth will be invited...

- ☀ to explore how they feel
- ☀ to understand the grieving process
- ☀ to meet other youth who share similar feelings
- ☀ to have a great time!

Who is Camp Journey for?

Camp Journey is for any child ages 7-17 who has lost someone close to them.

Parents and/or guardians are asked to complete an application and children are accepted by level of need.

How much does it cost?

Camp Journey is FREE to all participants.

Why should my child attend?

Children and youth often have difficulty understanding and coping with the loss of a loved one.

Children often:

- Exhibit sadness
- Withdraw from activities
- Have difficulty understanding death
- Begin fearing their own death and the deaths of family members
- Have difficulty in school
- Exhibit anger and even rage

If your child has exhibited any of these or you feel he or she could benefit, Camp Journey could help their understanding of loss and grief.

Through fun and reflection, Camp Journey is designed to help them understand their feelings and give them options for expression.

Where is Camp Journey?

Camp Journey is partnered with and located at Camp Twin Lakes in Rutledge, GA. It is a beautiful facility with plenty of activities including: challenging activities, walking trails, arts & crafts, & many other fun surprises. Designed for children with various needs, Camp Twin Lakes provides various, safe activities to help your child integrate with others and share their experience.

Camp Journey is led by trained volunteers and staff that are dedicated to helping your child in his or her grief. All volunteers and staff are required to complete a thorough interview process, extensive background checks, as well as complete training sessions.
